exercise of the powers vested in me by virtue of Rule 81 (2) (bb) of the Defence of India Rules do hereby order as follows :—

(1) In case of all tenanted houses, vacant houses, or houses likely to become vacant by the termination of any lease existing or by the existing tenant vacating the house, the owner or his agent shall not demand or charge rent more than the rent that prevailed on 1st July 1943.

(2) No owner or his agent of any unoccupied or vacant house shall refuse to let it when required to do so by a person who owns no house in the aforesaid Municipal areas and is in need of a house for his own occupation in the place where the house is situated.

(3) No owner or proprietor of any house shall evict unreasonably any tenant or sub-tenant from any house let. In case the owner wants to take steps for eviction of the tenant or sub-tenant, he should make an application to the District Magistrate, Kadur District, specifying the grounds on which eviction is sought for. If the District Magistrate is satisfied that eviction is necessary, permission will be granted to the owner or to the agent to take such steps as may be necessary for the eviction of the tenant or the sub-tenant.

(4) No person shall let to any person other than a Government servant any house in the above areas without the permission of the District Magistrate, Kadur District.

Any infringement of the above directions is punishable with rigorous imprisonment up to three years or with fine as provided in the Defence of India Rules.
